Bokashi Organko 2

Bokashi Organko 2 kitchen composter offers a modern cylindrical design, awarded with Red Dot Design Award. With a noticeably smaller volume of 9,6 liters, it is more compact. Actually, it is the combination of its compact size and modern looks that make Bokashi Organko 2 suitable for many modern urban dwellers, who normally don't prepare all their meals at home. But, who at the same time want every item in their kitchen to be as aesthetical as possible.

When it comes to color options, Bokashi Organko 2 offers three alternatives: cream white, cappuccino, and olive.
